Dear Ms Schuntner,

RE: QFF supports the Inland Queensland Roads Action Plan (IQ-RAP)

A key driver for any agricultural industry is having efficient road infrastructure for access to farming inputs and to get products to domestic and international markets. With much talk of opening up new industries and regions to more intensive agricultural and horticultural production particularly in north Queensland, improved transport infrastructure will be essential.

The Queensland Farmers' Federation (QFF) is impressed with the recently released Inland Queensland Roads Action Plan (IQ-RAP) which offers a great roadmap for future investment and development of road transport infrastructure across the state, and commends the partners for working so proactively and collectively with such a large number of regional stakeholders and interest groups. The agreed Action Plan is an achievement in and of itself.

Sincerely,

Stuart Armitage
